

Information Security Policy
According to IS ISO 27001:2013

- 👍 The Management of Metalicone Ltd., applies and assimilates a comprehensive quality management system, aiming to be a leader in the precision mechanical parts production & assemblies.
- 👍 Driven by the desire and commitment to supply a qualitative and reliable product to its customer, Metalicone's Management adopts the AS9100c Quality Management standard and the ISO27001:2013 Information Security Management Standard.
- 👍 To gain its customer's satisfaction and trust, Metalicone's Management implements the following Information Security principles:
 - Confidentiality - the company Management maintains and implements the security and control actions required to prevent exposure of information and knowledge of the Company and of its customers to unauthorized parties within and outside Metalicone.
 - Reliability – the company employs reliable and trustworthy employees according to determined criteria or standards applied or required by regulations, dedicated laws and signed agreements with the customer.
 - Availability - Information stored in the company's database is available at any time to authorized users only, in both routine and emergency conditions.
 - Conformance – the company maintains a monitoring and control process to review its actions and systems, examine the extent to which it fulfills the requirements of the law, of its Information Security policy and the procedures derived from it, and its obligations to the customer.
- 👍 Metalicone's Management appointed skilled position holders to manage and promote the Information Security aspects of the Company on behalf of the Management and will constantly act to enhance their proficiencies in this subject.
- 👍 Metalicone's Management acts constantly to increase awareness of its employees and parties that work with the Company to aspects of information and knowledge Security and to ways of protecting the Company's assets and information against any damage and against reaching unauthorized parties.
- 👍 By adopting this policy, Metalicone's Management is committed to act with fairness, sincerity and morality in any relation with its customers, suppliers and employees.
- 👍 The Management of Metalicone Ltd , hereby declares that reliability, service and morality are the foundations of its long term existence as a leader in its field.

Sincerely,
Yuval Alimi, Quality Manager
Guy Cohen, CEO

